

Restaurant Guide

Welcome to San Diego for ABCT's 51st Annual Convention! We hope that you will enjoy your visit to our beautiful city. We have put together a list of some of our favorite restaurants that may appeal to you during the conference. Because of the many incredible food offerings in San Diego, it was impossible to come up with an exhaustive list. Please feel free to do your own research; OpenTable, Yelp, and Thrillist are helpful websites to get recommendations and reviews. Reservations are strongly encouraged, especially for Friday and Saturday nights, as many restaurants may be booked ahead of time.

We have organized our suggestions by neighborhood in San Diego. While San Diego is known for its Mexi-Cali and seafood cuisine, there are also a variety of other culinary options. Please let us know if you have any questions about where to eat.
